

MONTHLY UPDATES, MARCH 2011

Certificate for 'Environmental Management and Governance' Course

The four months Certificate Programme on 'Environmental Management and Governance' ended with a Certificate awarding ceremony at the BRAC University on 31st March, 2011. Professor Ainun Nishat, VC of BRAC University was present at the occasion and distributed certificates among the students. The course was attended by professionals from both the NGOs and corporate sector. The course was jointly organized by IGS and Natural Resource Institute (NRI), University of Manitoba, Canada.

JATRI organized training on 'Interviewing and Source Development Techniques'

Journalism Training & Research Initiative (JATRI) of IGS organized a training on 'Interviewing and Source Development Techniques' at the JATRI Training Room during 21-23 March, 2011. 21 Working Journalists participated at the training. Senior Journalist Ms. Shahnaz Munni facilitated the program while she shared her own work experiences with the participants. The program ended with another short session by Ms. Farhana Islam, Training Manager of JATRI, on the 'Power of Silence'.

JATRI Fellowship:

1st Batch: Eight reports prepared by eight fellows of the first batch of JATRI Fellowship Program have been published in different newspapers and online media in March 2011.

2nd Batch: A three members Jury board interviewed 21 journalists who applied for the 2nd batch of JATRI fellowship on 28 March. Mr. Abed Khan, Editor, Kaler Kantho, Ms. Selina Hossain, Litterateur Personality and Mr. Zaglul Ahmed Chowdhury, Former Managing Director, BSS were present as Jury board members in the selection board. Another eight journalists will be awarded for the 2nd batch of the fellowship program.

ANSA Chief conducted training in Sri Lanka

Dr. Gopakumar K Thampi, Chief Operating Officer, ANSA-SAR conducted a half day training session for the staff of the Applied Research Unit of the United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS) in Colombo, Sri Lanka on The use of qualitative and quantitative techniques for M&E focusing on service delivery projects. The presentation was followed by a discussion session. In addition to the staff present the entire session was also webcast to other UN offices globally. ANSA SAR recently developed a Social Accountability Strategy for the Asia Foundation's Local Economic Growth Project, to be implemented in the Post Conflict Northern and Eastern Provinces of Sri Lanka. Following this a three day training workshop was organized on 28-30 March, 2011 by the Asia Foundation on the social accountability tools for 30 local government officials of the Northern and Eastern Provinces. Dr. Gopakumar K Thampi was the resource person for this workshop.

MONTHLY UPDATES, FEBRUARY 2011

Training for the Assistant Commissioners of Customs and VAT

The Affiliated Network for Social Accountability- South Asia Region based at the Institute conducted a day-long training on social accountability with a focus on Citizen Report Card for 28 Assistant Commissioners of Customs and VAT. The training was held in Chittagong on 13 February, 2011 at the Customs and VAT training academy. This sensitization workshop was the third of a series of workshops held for entry to mid-level civil servants in Bangladesh. This workshop explored the possibility of civil servants institutionalizing social accountability tools such as Citizen's report Card to enhance their accountability.

Public Discussion on “Language of FM Radio”

The Journalism Training and Research Initiative (JATRI) of IGS organized a public discussion on “Language of Advertisement” on 9 February 2011 at the JATRI conference room. Mr. Ameen Al Rashid, Senior Reporter & News Presenter of ABC Radio was present as guest speaker. Radio jokers, reporters and producers of different radio stations, representatives of Bangla Academy and Bangladesh Betar participated in the discussion. Mr. Rashid said that the main objective of language is to communicate with others, so it is important to fix the standard of that communication. The guest speaker’s speech was followed by an interactive question & answer session. The programme was moderated by Chief of JATRI Mr. Jamil Ahmed. .

Public Discussion on “Language of Advertisement”

JATRI organized a public Lecture on “Language of Advertisement” on 28 February 2011. Mr. Afzal Hossain, famous actor and Managing Partner of MATTRA, attended the programme as a key speaker. Fifty journalists from different print and electronic media attended the discussion. In his lecture Mr. Hossain mentioned that the main objective of an advertisement is to attract others attention. Power of advertisement lies in its novelty and language of advertisements should not hurt anybody. The discussion ended with a question-answer session.

JATRI Fellowship Awarded

Eight journalists were awarded JATRI Fellowship in the first cohort for their work on investigative journalism. The fellows were selected from different newspapers, radios, television channels and online news agencies. Each fellow would produce three investigative reports during their tenure. Three such reports have already been published in their respective news papers. JATRI formed a Fellowship Management Team to supervise selection of journalists under the second batch of the fellowship program. In order to uphold a transparent selection process, a three member jury board has also been created. Initial screening for selection of journalists has been done in February 2011. JATRI received thirty six applications for consideration in its second batch of the fellowship program.

Training on Ethics and Standards of Journalism

JATRI organized a four-day training for twenty five journalists on ‘Ethics and Standards of Journalism’ on 12-15 February 2011 in JATRI Training Room. The purpose of the training was to enhance the knowledge of the participants about ethics and standards of journalism. The contents of the training focused on both the theoretical and practical sides of ethics and standards of journalism. Apart from training staff members of JATRI, Mr. Nayeemul Islam Khan, Editor of The Daily Amader Shomoy and Mr. Robaet Ferdous, Associate Professor of the Mass Communication and Journalism Department, University of Dhaka conducted sessions of the training as resource persons.

JATRI also organized the same course for the second batch consisting of twenty journalists on 27

February to 02 March 2011. Mr. Muzzammil Husain, Senior Journalist; Ms. Sheepa Hafiza, Director, Gender, Justice & Diversity and Advocacy, BRAC and Ms. Munni Saha, Head of News, ATN News conducted sessions of the training as resource persons.